

Koppers Announces Sale of Common Stock Owned by Saratoga and Certain Officers of the Company

February 27, 2007

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27 /PRNewswire/ -- Koppers Holdings Inc. (NYSE: KOP) announced today a secondary offering of 1,610,000 shares of the company's common stock. The shares are being offered through Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC. The underwriter also has a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 241,500 shares of common stock to cover over-allotments, if any.

All of the shares are currently issued and outstanding. Of the total offering, 1,500,000 shares are being sold by Koppers' largest shareholder, Saratoga Partners III, LP and affiliated companies ("Saratoga") which, after the consummation of this proposed offering, will own approximately 12% of Koppers' outstanding shares, excluding the effect of shares sold for over-allotments, if any. Saratoga is a private equity firm.

Additionally, certain executive officers of the company, including president and CEO Walter W. Turner, are selling an aggregate of 110,000 shares in the offering with no over-allotment provision. Mr. Turner is selling 50,000 shares, representing approximately 13% of his total beneficial ownership in the company, for asset diversification purposes.

Koppers will not receive any proceeds from the sale.

As part of the offering, the company, Saratoga, and certain officers will be subject to a 60-day "lock-up" period, subject to certain exceptions, including exceptions relating to 10b5-1 trading plans for officers.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities. A copy of the prospectus relating to these securities may be obtained, when available, from the prospectus department of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, 11 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10010, 800-221-1037.
