

Koppers Announces Expiration of Early Tender Time and Results to Date of Tender Offer for Its 9 7/8 Percent Senior Discount Notes Due 2014

November 30, 2009

PITTSBURGH, PA, Nov 30, 2009 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- Koppers Holdings Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (NYSE: KOP), today announced the early tender results for its previously announced tender offer to purchase all of its issued and outstanding 9 7/8% Senior Discount Notes due 2014.

As of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, November 25, 2009, the previously announced early tender time, according to information provided by the depository, $189,500,000 principal amount of the Senior Discount Notes, representing 93.3% of the principal amount outstanding, had been validly tendered and not withdrawn. The early settlement date for Senior Discount Notes tendered on or prior to the early tender time is expected to be December 2, 2009.

The tender offer expires at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on December 10, 2009, unless extended. Holders of Senior Discount Notes that were validly tendered prior to the early tender time and accepted for payment will receive $1,049.38 per $1,000 principal amount of the notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest up to, but not including, the applicable settlement date. Holders of Senior Discount Notes that are validly tendered after the early tender time but before the expiration time will receive $1,000.00 per $1,000 principal amount of the notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest up to, but not including, the applicable settlement date.

Pursuant to the indenture relating to the Senior Discount Notes, Koppers Holdings is permitted to redeem any Senior Discount Notes not tendered in the tender offer at any time after November 15, 2009 for 104.938 percent of principal value, declining annually in ratable amounts until the redemption price is equivalent to the principal value. Koppers Holdings presently intends to redeem pursuant to the terms of the indenture governing the Senior Discount Notes any Senior Discount Notes which remain outstanding following consummation of the tender offer at a redemption price equal to $1,049.38 per $1,000 principal amount of Senior Discount Notes. Although Koppers Holdings is not obligated to redeem the Senior Discount Notes, the recent amendment to Koppers Holdings' and its subsidiaries' existing credit agreement requires that proceeds sufficient to fund the redemption or repurchase of all of the Senior Discount Notes be deposited in an account with the administrative agent and restricts Koppers Holdings' ability to use the deposited funds for any purpose other than the repurchase or redemption of the Senior Discount Notes. However, there can be no assurance that any such repurchase or redemption will occur.

The tender offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including the consummation of a notes offering in which our wholly-owned subsidiary, Koppers Inc., obtains new debt financing yielding net proceeds which, when paid as a dividend to Koppers Holdings in compliance with applicable laws, are in an amount that is sufficient to pay the total consideration to tendering holders, together with all fees and expenses associated with the offering, on terms and conditions satisfactory to Koppers Holdings in its sole discretion. Koppers Holdings may amend, extend or terminate the tender offer in its sole discretion. The complete terms and conditions of the tender offer are set forth in the offer to purchase and the related letter of transmittal that were sent to registered holders of the Senior Discount Notes on November 12, 2009. Holders are urged to read the offer to purchase and the letter of transmittal carefully.

This news release is neither an offer to purchase nor a solicitation of an offer to sell any notes. Persons with questions regarding the tender offer should contact the lead dealer manager -- Goldman, Sachs & Co. at (800) 828-3182 (toll free) -- or the Information Agent, Global Bondholder Services Corporation, at (866) 470-4300 (toll free).
