Forward Looking Statement

Certain statements in this presentation are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and may include, but are not limited to, statements about sales levels, acquisitions, restructuring, declines in the value of Koppers assets and the effect of any resulting impairment charges, profitability and anticipated expenses and cash outflows. All forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. All statements contained herein that are not clearly historical in nature are forward-looking, and words such as "outlook," "guidance," "forecast," "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "estimate," "may," "will," "should," "continue," "plan," "potential," "intend," "likely," or other similar words or phrases are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statement contained herein, in other press releases, written statements or other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or in Koppers communications and discussions with investors and analysts in the normal course of business through meetings, phone calls and conference calls, regarding future dividends, expectations with respect to sales, earnings, cash flows, operating efficiencies, restructurings, cost reduction efforts, the benefits of acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures or other matters as well as financings and debt reduction, are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and contingencies. Many of these risks, uncertainties and contingencies are beyond our control, and may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from anticipated results, performance or achievements. Factors that might affect such forward-looking statements include, among other things, the impact of changes in commodity prices, such as oil and copper, on product margins; general economic and business conditions; potential difficulties in protecting our intellectual property; the ratings on our debt and our ability to repay or refinance our outstanding indebtedness as it matures; our ability to operate within the limitations of our debt covenants; unexpected business disruptions; potential delays in timing or changes to expected benefits from cost reduction efforts; potential impairment of our goodwill and/or long-lived assets; demand for Koppers goods and services; competitive conditions; capital market conditions, including interest rates, borrowing costs and foreign currency rate fluctuations; availability and fluctuations in the prices of key raw materials; disruptions and inefficiencies in the supply chain; economic, political and environmental conditions in international markets; changes in laws; the impact of environmental laws and regulations; unfavorable resolution of claims against us, as well as those discussed more fully elsewhere in this release and in documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Koppers, particularly our latest annual report on Form 10-K and any subsequent filings by Koppers with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Any forward-looking statements in this release speak only as of the date of this release, and we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after that date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Capital Allocation

Uses of Cash: Balanced Approach

Investing in our business

- ✓ Net capital expenditures of $55.0M YTD 9/30/24
- ✓ $80M total capex projected in 2024 (originally $100M), compared with $116M in 2023
- Returning capital to shareholders
 - ✓ Share repurchases of $10.4M in Q3
 - ✓ Quarterly dividend of $0.07/share
- Reducing leverage⁽¹⁾ as appropriate
 - ✓ $936.4M net debt and $332M liquidity at 9/30/24
 - ✓ Long-term target of 2x-3x net leverage ratio

Confident In Ability to Grow and Generate Cash

(1) Net Leverage Ratio is calculated as net debt divided by adjusted EBITDA for the latest twelve-month period. Net debt represents total debt less cash at the end of a quarter. Net debt, liquidity, and operating cash flow will fluctuate before, after and throughout the related period based upon the timing of receipts and payables.

Business Sentiment

PC: PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS

Prior Market Outlook (August 2024):

- Legacy residential volumes finished Q2 flat compared to 2023; still forecasting flat for the year
- Treater consolidation will add additional volume in 2H 2024
- 7% increase in industrial preservative through June; will continue to moderate as the year progresses
- Additional grinding capacity operational with faster cycle times
- Copper prices off their 2024 peak; up 6% YTD; continue hedging into 2025
- Repair/remodeling market expected to begin reversing its downward trend in 1H 2025

- Q3 volumes continued to be solid as MicroPro ground contact volumes slightly up from prior year; above ground residential volumes weaker in Q3
- Stronger demand in Canada and Australasia offset by weaker sales in Europe and South America
- Industrial comps dipped negative in Q3 as PC loses Brown Wood to interco sales; industrial will be stronger in Q4 due to storm response demand
- Slight price erosion experienced for most non-contracted business
- Copper prices up 17% YTD; continue hedging into 2025
- Existing home sales have not rebounded despite dip in mortgage rates

RUPS: UTILITY AND INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS

Prior Market Outlook (August 2024):

- Closed on Brown Wood on 4/1; integration proceeding as planned
- Texas market penetration at 40% of long-term goal
- Legacy demand down due to destocking and project delays/deferrals
- Price increases added $1.0M in Q2; up 4% YTD
- Remainder of new kiln capacity online and contributing to lower costs
- Focus on optimizing plant efficiency resulted in lower costs
- Australian pole business had best quarter since 2014

- Unprecedented storm response to Hurricane's Helene and Milton will support strong Q4
- New Brown plants operating well; contribution behind schedule due to softer industry demand (non-storm)
- Texas market penetration continues at 40% of long-term goal
- Storm response has eaten into Koppers and select customers' inventories
- Price increases added $5M through Q3; up 2.5% YTD
- Australian pole business on pace for best year since 2014

RUPS: RAILROAD PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Prior Market Outlook (August 2024):

- $17M of price recognized YTD June
- Q2 boultonizing dropped to lowest level since Q1 2022 boosting asset efficiency
- Certain customers will switch from dual treatment to higher creosote retention in Q4
- Demand projections now flat compared to 2023
- Commercial backlog remains strong; profitability healthy
- MOW showed better performance in Q2 as expected; should perform at a similar level the balance of the year
- Implementing $4M-$7M of cost reductions aimed at realigning service levels with willingness to pay

- $20M of price recognized YTD Sept
- Boultonizing continued to drop in Q3 to lowest level since Q4 2021
- Air stacked inventory at healthiest level in years; no longer playing catch up
- Demand projections still projected flat to 2023
- Quoting activity of commercial business remains strong
- MOW continued to show sequential improvement in Q3
- Have achieved $4M of cost reductions through September; should finish closer to high end of goal range by year-end

A CMC: CARBON MATERIALS AND CHEMICALS

Prior Market Outlook (August 2024):

- Pitch markets continue to be at trough; $23M lower pricing and $11M lower sales volumes in Q2
- Coal tar cost reductions outpaced finished goods price declines Q2 2024 vs. Q2 2023
- Phthalic anhydride markets remained strong in Q2 due to competitor supply issues; should continue at least through Q3 2024
- Stickney operating performance was much improved over Q1
- Beginning discussions of supply extensions in advance of contract expirations
- Trimming costs wherever possible as we work through current market challenges
- Reduced capital plan by $10M as we evaluate long-term operating strategy

- Pitch markets reached or are close to bottom; $14M lower pricing in Q3 but higher volumes added $8M in sales
- Coal tar cost reductions kept pace with finished goods price declines Q3 2024 vs. Q3 2023
- As expected, phthalic anhydride markets remained strong in Q3 due to competitor supply issues; will soften in Q4
- Agreement on extension of key AU supply being finalized; No progress to report on US and EU raw material supply extension discussions
- Captured cost savings of $7M through Sept
- Tracking to $24M less capital spending in 2024 vs. 2023; should continue to trend down

Early Expectations for 2025

PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS	화추 UTILITY AND INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS
 Expecting more competitive environment to result in net market share loss and margin erosion in residential market 	 Expecting healthier utility market to support modestly higher volumes
 Expecting slightly healthier market conditions due to improved housing market 	 Full year of Brown Wood business Expecting market share growth in Texas and Midwest
 Industrial demand expected to grow due to net market share gains and improved industry backdrop 	 Various market drivers still positive for long-term (such as infrastructure build, grid-hardening, broadband expansion)
 Copper prices will be higher but hedged; most other product costs not expected to see measurable change 	 Continuing to evaluate opportunities for growth through further consolidation or entering new fiber markets
A平 RAILROAD PRODUCTS AND SERVICES	ARBON MATERIALS AND CHEMICALS
 Expecting slightly higher sales volumes in 2025 through market share gains; overall Class I market expected to be flat to slightly down 	 Better volumes in RPS will support stronger creosote sales Cost position will improve in U.S., or we will look to rationalize capacity
Expecting higher contract pricing while operating costs mostly remain in check or lower	Europe and Australia expecting similar level of profitability as 20
 Commercial demand expected to be in line with 2024 	 Expecting marginal contribution from enhanced carbon product sales due to higher pricing spreads
 Expecting contribution from maintenance-of-way businesses to have little year-over-year impact on results 	Expecting second straight year of reduction in capital expenditu

Early Expectations for 2025

Operating Costs, SG&A & Interest	Capital Deployment
Termination of U.S. pension plan will result in $3M-$4M annual cost savings	 Termination of U.S. pension plan will result in $25M final contribution
 Resizing workforce to be responsive to competitive pressure; reducing cost structure to be more in line with commodity chemical metrics Expecting interest expense and cash savings from combination of lower average borrowings and lower rates 	 Expecting normal capital investment year of $65M-$75M Planning to consider dividend increase in February 2025 Planning to allocate capital to share repurchases to offset dilution and support stock price during periods of market overreaction
	Remaining free cash flow will be allocated to reduce debt

- Top-line not expected to be markedly different than 2024
- Confident 2025 adjusted EBITDA will exceed current consensus of $285M; targeting $300M (or more), representing new highs in adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, and adjusted EPS
- Expecting net leverage will drop below 3 times adjusted EBITDA due to combination of higher adjusted EBITDA and lower net debt
- Expecting to recognize GAAP charges for U.S. and U.K. pension terminations and restructuring charges
- Contemplating sale or shutdown of various operations, which could result in restructuring costs and generate cash savings
- Still working on details that will be provided during Q4 earnings call in February 2025
- Expecting to discuss details of 2030 Strategy during Investor Day planned for September 2025

Appendix

Non-GAAP Measures & Guidance

This presentation includes unaudited "non-GAAP financial measures" as defined in Regulation G under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, adjusted EPS, net debt and net leverage ratio. Koppers believes that the presentation of non-GAAP financial measures provides information useful to investors in understanding the underlying operational performance of the company, its business and performance trends and facilitates comparisons between periods and with other corporations in similar industries. The exclusion of certain items permits evaluation and a comparison of results for ongoing business operations, and it is on this basis that Koppers management internally assesses the company's performance. In addition, the Board of Directors and executive management team use adjusted EBITDA as a performance measure under the company's annual incentive plans and for certain performance share units granted to management.

Although Koppers believes that these non-GAAP financial measures enhance investors' understanding of its business and performance, these non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered an alternative to GAAP basis financial measures and should be read in conjunction with the relevant GAAP financial measure. Other companies in a similar industry may define or calculate these measures differently than the company, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures. Because of these limitations, these non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as substitutes for performance measures calculated in accordance with GAAP.

Koppers does not provide reconciliations of guidance for adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EPS to comparable GAAP measures, in reliance on the unreasonable efforts exception. Koppers is unable, without unreasonable efforts, to forecast certain items required to develop meaningful comparable GAAP financial measures. These items include, but are not limited to, restructuring and impairment charges, acquisition-related costs, mark-to-market commodity hedging, and LIFO adjustments that are difficult to predict in advance in order to include in a GAAP estimate and may be significant.

References to historical EBITDA herein means adjusted EBITDA, for which the company has provided calculations and reconciliations in the Appendix.
